

Wine Spectator

93

$45

Westerhold

Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast 2019

Shows some maturity, with singed chaparral, licorice root and smoldering red tea notes out in front of a core of lightly mulled raspberry and black cherry fruit. Nice sous bois accent underscores the finish. Nice range. Drink now through 2030. 350 cases made.

James Molesworth

Senior Editor and Special Projects Director, New York